

Please keep all your graded homeworks and quizzes for the duration of the course.

I do hope that you concentrate on learning the material, and on making this a pleasant and useful experience!

- 2- You should write the quiz #, the date and class (EE303) on the cover. On the upper left hand corner, please write the ID # that is assigned to you.
- 3- The graded quiz will be given in a lecture. You have until the next lecture to dispute your grade.
- 4- It is the responsibility of the student to be present in the lecture, and collect his graded quiz.
- 5- If duplication between to answers is significant, the two students may be requested to answer two similar quizzes. This way it will be clear if either, if any have cheated. If it is found that a student have cheated, he or she will get 0 in that quiz. If this happens again, he or she will fail the course.

Final Project:

All interaction with me has to be done by all members of the group. The grade for the project will be based on the level of achievement, relative merit compared to other projects, the significance and relevance of the topic, as well as the competence in its delivery, or presentation to me. The final Project grade could be disputed only within 48 hours following the presentation or discussion.

EE 303, Grading Rules

Rules that govern our grading process:

HW:

- 1- Homework should be submitted at the beginning of the recitation on Friday. The solutions will then be discussed, and no homework's will be accepted after solution is discussed.
- 2- It is the responsibility of each student to take delivery of their homework.
- 3- You have until the next recitation to dispute your grade.
- 4- No homework will be graded afterwards.
- 5- Up to 3 students can submit homework together.

Quiz:

- 1- Each student is to answer quiz by themselves.